Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: 1) the phrase "operating of" should be "operating off" in line 2; and 2) the light source should be recited in the claim explicitly.

3. Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: the candle body, light source and power source (battery) should be explicitly recited in the claim.

4. Claim 3 is objected to because of the following informalities: 1) the phrase "the tip" should be "a tip" in line 1; and 2) the candle body, light source and power source should be explicitly recited in the claim. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2875

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gutstein et al.

(U.S. Patent 6,719,443).

Regarding claim 2 Gutstein et al. discloses an electronic battery-operated candle with the tip (26), which uses a micro-controller to facilitate a variety of glow or flicker light patterns emulating a wax candle flame (column 8, lines 30-40).

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Andeweg (U.S. Patent 3,890,085).

Regarding claim 3, Andeweg discloses an electronic battery-operated candle with a tip (Fig. 19) having scent emitting substance added to the candle (column 9, lines 10-20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gutstein et al. (U.S. Patent 6,719,443) and further in view of Tal et al. (U.S. Patent 6,491,516).

Regarding claim 1, Gutstein et al. discloses a plastic body (column 2, lines 24-25) resembling the shape of a partially melted wax pillar candle with a somewhat flame-shaped tip (Fig. 9) operating off the user-installed standard batteries (Fig. 3) and a micro-controller to provide a variety of glow or flicker light patterns emulating a wax candle flame (column 8, lines 31-40).

Tal et al. discloses a sliding on/off switch (column 14, line 6).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the slide switch of Tal et al. in the apparatus of Gutstein et al. to enable a person to turn the light source on and off easily with a finger to save battery power when the light is not needed.

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Bardeen et al. (U.S. Patent 6,309,092) discloses an illumination device for illuminating an object's interior.

12. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sharon E. Payne whose telephone number is (571) 272-2379. The examiner can normally be reached during regular business hours.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Sandra O'Shea can be reached on (571) 272-2378. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.

13. Information regarding the status of an application may be obtained from the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system. Status information for published applications may be obtained from either Private PAIR or Public PAIR. Status information for unpublished applications is available through Private PAIR only.
